The Talismans of Shannara (The Heritage of Shannara, Book 4) By Terry Brooks

Although some of the goals to keep Shannara safe had been met, the work of Walker Boh, Wren, and Par was not yet done. For The Shadowmen still swarmed over the Four Lands, poisoning all with their dark magic. Each Shannaran had a special death waiting for him- at the hands of The Shadowmen-unless Par could find a way to free them all with the Sword of Shannara.

Editorial Review

From Publishers Weekly

Brooks's resounding, action-filled conclusion to the Heritage of Shannara series was a nine-week PW bestseller.

From Library Journal

Having fulfilled the quests imposed upon them by the shade of the druid Allanon, the children of Shannara must now attempt to use their newfound powers and allies to defeat the Shadowen who are ravaging the Four Lands. Drawing together the threads of the three previous series titles, Brooks orchestrates an exciting, though predictable, conclusion to his second Shannara series. Brooks's appeal lies in his fidelity to tried-and-true quest fantasy and his ability to create engaging protagonists. Most libraries will want this title to satisfy patron demand. From Kirkus Reviews

Concluding the second series of Shannara yarns (The Elf Queen of Shannara, etc.) as the scions of Shannara--namely, the newly made Druid, Walker Boh, the Elf Queen Wren Elesedil, and the magical Ohmsford brothers, Par and Coll--somehow must unite their efforts in order to bring a final end to the evil Shadowen and their leader, Rimmer Dall. The latter, of course, has other ideas: he will send the Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse against Walker Boh; he will confuse Wren with a seeming friend who will betray her; Coll--even if he escapes the magic Shadowen cloak that is corrupting him--will seize the Sword of Shannara, to the consternation of Par, who thought the Sword intended for him; and Par, his magic wishsong growing ever more uncontrollable, will be seduced into believing that his true destiny is to become Shadowen himself.... Flabby and predictable work, not helped by the whole increasingly threadbare Shannara concept, now clearly past its sell-by date. Still, fans of the series won't be dissuaded. -- Copyright ©1993, Kirkus Associates, LP. All rights reserved.
