I Shall Come to Her

If some there be with aged mien

Who wisely smile at love.

And say 'tis but a childish dream

And one they are above,

To them I say who sit and smile,

Because they so prefer,

I pray I shall not die until

My feet have come to her.

I know somewhere tonight she sits

Within her father's home,

While I a foot-loose wanderer

Am destined still to roam.

But I shall find her out I know

And thus within her place
She calmly sits and waits for me,
And she will know my face.
And one sweet day, we two shall meet,
Whatever may occur;
And so content I wander on,
For I shall come to her.
